Faculty

We know we are most fortunate to maintain the fine staff of teachers that we have at Chesaning High School. It is through their unselfish efforts that they have contributed to making our school the outstanding one that it is. As students, we appreciate this time and effort expended by the faculty, and realize the excellent job you are doing in contributing to the welfare of the entire community.

Student Council

The Student Council, under the direction of Mr. Ringler, is a member of the National Student Council Organization again this year. The membership consists of six Seniors, five Juniors, three Sophomores, two Freshmen and one each from the eighth and seventh grades. The president and the vice-president are elected by the student body while the other members are elected as representatives by their respective classes.

The Council carries out its duties through committees. The chairman of each is as follows: Civic Service and Problems, Sandra Slusser; Athletic Planning, Joyce Richardson; Assembly Program, Sue Schultz; School Party, Jean Kviz. The Council officers this year are as follows: President, Jeff Coke; Vice-President, Russel Fuoss; Secretary, Joyce Richardson; Treasurer, Jean Kviz.

First row--Miss Walker, Richardson, Ferden, Hersch, Mrs. McFall.

Forensics

This year, one hundred fifty students took part in forensics. The local contest, which took place in the study hall on March 17 had twenty participants.

In oratorical declamations, LaVern Skaryd placed first and Carol Ferden second; in interpretative readings, Leonard Schmiede won first and Joan Hersch second; humorous reading, Eugene Ellis first, Richard Holzhausen second.

These students, together with Dean Morman and Joyce Richardson giving their original orations, represented our school at the District Contest held in Chesaning on April 9 where we competed with students from Midland and Ithaca. The local students made a very good showing, taking three first places and one second. LaVern Skaryd placed first in oratorical declamations, Eugene Ellis first in humorous, Joyce Richardson first in original orations, Joan Hersch second in interpretative readings. The first place winners will represent the local school in the Regional Contest at Midland the first week in May where they will compete against winners from three other districts.

Football

The football team, under the guidance of Coaches Mohre and Majdeski, had a very impressive season, tying for second place with Durand in the Central "C" Conference.

In the last game of the year, the Indians lost possession of the "Golden Cuspidor" when they were defeated by a very strong and fleet St. Charles team. They have high hopes of winning it back next year.
